

He suffered the things we should have suffered.

He took on himself the pain that should have been ours.

But we thought God was punishing him.

We thought God was wounding him and making him suffer.

But the servant was pierced because we had sinned.

He was crushed because we had done what was evil.

He was punished to make us whole again.

His wounds have healed us.

Isaiah 53:4-5

When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

Hymn #324

Prelude

Welcome
Call to Worship

Leader: Is it nothing to all you who pass this way?

People: Is there any suffering like unto that of Jesus?

Leader: All have sinned, and the consequence of sin is death.
But God sent His only begotten Son, who was without sin, to be the sacrifice for our sin.

People: Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.
