From Your Favorite Pastor

Last month we saw Jude (v.11-13) rip the apostates and heretics in the first century church. He used several examples to show what happens to those who lead people away from God and His Word and that we are to fight for His Truth. There is a significant lesson and understanding to have in all of this- there is judgment and punishment from God for wrongs.

Hell and the idea of punishment is far from a popular concept in Western society. In this age of tolerance and acceptance, the topic of eternal punishment is taboo with the very mention of it considered unloving. Postmodern culture believes that everyone is basically good and expects that life after death, if it exists at all, includes heaven for all but the most evil people. This political correctness and doctrinal ambiguity has permeated the church, even among those that call themselves evangelical. We find churches that are embarrassed to teach about hell and eternal destruction and these ideas are explained away, softened, or ignored. Thus, many in the church are not getting the idea of the holiness of God which brings wrath and judgment to those who are not holy.

God's Word is in stark contrast to these ideas about the reality of judgment and they come through in the Old and New Testaments, being extremely clear about eternal retribution and punishment. The New Testament is especially clear about this whole idea. There are seven primary features in the New Testament about this judgment and eternal punishment. First, the final aspect of God's divine wrath relates to a specific future event-Christ's Second Coming- where He will return and execute judgment (Acts 17:31; Matthew 24:29-30; Romans 2:5-8). Second, this judgment will be general and public-Christ will call all the nations to account (Matthew 25; Mark 4; Revelation 20). Third, God's judgment will be just and impartial- no one will be able to escape the judgment of God (Romans 2, 1 John 5, Matthew 16). Fourth, the promise of divine judgment is intended as a warning and fear to bring people to Him (Hebrews 10, 11; John 19; Acts 24). Fifth, God's judgment is based on His law (Deuteronomy 27; Romans 2, 3; Galatians 3; James 2). Sixth, God's final judgment will occur in specific stages. Finally, God's retribution ultimately results in eternal damnation in hell (Matthew 13, 24; John 5).

This doesn't make people feel good about themselves or the world around them, yet Jude clearly tells us that those who lead people away from God will experience these judgments. If we claim to be true Believers in Jesus the Christ, then we are acceding to the reality of judgment and punishment. As we will see in our Sunday morning study of the Revelation of John, all will be judged, the Believer and non-Believer. We fight for God's Truth because it offers the hope of escaping the eternal judgment that awaits every non-Believer because it is everyone's only chance (John 5:24). I encourage you to cling to this hope and to use it to share with those around you, as the Believer's judgment will be over what we did with what God gave us.

Next month we will look more thoroughly through v.14-16 to see what Jude says is coming for these heretics and for the Church.

What Is Heaven Like?

*By Daryl Rodriguez
Apologetics Bible pg. 1399*

Imagine a place where the temperature is absolutely perfect...a place surrounded by beauty and splendor everywhere you look...a place where you continuously feel peace, joy, and safety. If you are a Christian, you will not imagine in vain, for the heaven that awaits all believers will be a perfect place. Though there are many beautiful places in our world, none compare to the new heaven and new earth that God will unveil in eternity.

Revelation chapters 21 and 22 present the most vivid picture of the eternal state. To begin, what is often described as the final "heaven" will include not only a new heaven but also a new earth. In fact, it is this new earth that is most emphasized in Scripture. It will be covered mostly by land, as there will be no seas (21:1). Crystal-clear water will flow from the river that proceeds from the throne of the Father and the Son (22:1). We will never experience nighttime or darkness again, and we will continuously bask in the light of the Lord's glory (21:33; 22:5). At the center of this new earth will be the heavenly city, New Jerusalem. It will include a surrounding wall inlaid with precious jewels, twelve gates (each made of a single giant pearl), and a "heavenly highway" of pure gold-like transparent glass (21:12, 19, 21). Whatever the exact size and shape (Perhaps a cube or pyramid) of the city, there will be plenty of room for all the saints from every age, nation, and ethnicity to live within it and around it (21:16).

But what will we do there? Will we be bored? Because we will be in a perfected state, we will not worry about boredom, suffering, death, or having bad thoughts (21:4). We will reign with God, worship Him and serve Him (22:3-5; see also Romans 8:17; Hebrews 1:2). It will be a place of complete goodness and safety.

Perhaps one of the best aspects of heaven will be the fellowship! There will be fascinating distinctions between individuals, races, and even nations (Revelation 5:9; 21:24), yet without the strife, these distinctions can be on earth. We will be able to recognize redeemed loved ones, as well as all the saints throughout history. Matthew 8:11 says, "many will come from east and west, and recline at the table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven". Imagine what it will be like to talk to some of the Bible characters you have admired all your life! Picture yourself hanging out with Jesus, Adam and Eve, Noah, Job, Esther, and the Apostle Paul.

Together, we will have the ultimate privilege of seeing God face to face, knowing Him more intimately, and experiencing His greatness and love for eternity. For now, we can rest in this eternal hope. And when Jesus comes for us, "we will always be with the Lord" (I Thessalonians 4:17).

KNOW YOUR BIBLE SECTIONS

One way to divide the Bible into sections is to categorize them by type of writing:

- |            |                   |               |

| B. HISTORY | E. MINOR PROPHETS | H. EPISTLES   |
| C. WISDOM  | F. GOSPELS        | I. REVELATION |

See if you can match the section to the details given below.

Ribbon Bookmarks

The elastic band stretches to accommodate the book pages as you get further into your book. You'll never lose your place in a book again with one of these non-slip ribbon bookmarks!

HERE ARE THE MATERIALS NEEDED FOR THIS PROJECT:

- Decorative Ribbon at least 1/2 in. wide
- Elastic Hair Bands
- Decorative Buttons
- Scissors
- Needle & Thread and/or Sewing machine

HERE'S HOW YOU MAKE THIS PROJECT:

Cut the ribbon into 18-inch strips. (This is for an average-sized book. If you need a bookmark for a large book, you may want to measure around the book first and add length to the ribbon.)

Fold one end of the ribbon over 1/4 inch. Fold it over another 1/4 inch and stitch across. You can do this by hand, or use a sewing machine. I used a zig-zag stitch on my machine for a special touch.

Repeat for the other end of the ribbon, adding the elastic hair band before you start folding to attach it to the ribbon.

Now one end of the ribbon bookmarks done. Halfway there!

Use your needle and thread to attach a button to the other end of the ribbon.

Yay! you're all done!

To use, just wrap your ribbon bookmark around your book and pull the elastic up and around the button to secure it into place.

Mission News!

By: Sandy Braid

Mission Jar- The Missions Committee would like to give a hearty thanks our Congregation for your support of our Mission projects. We have heard from several of our missionaries thanking us for our generous monetary gift from our "Missionary Christmas Jar". With the news channels carrying so much negative news and bad things happening in our world, it is a breath of fresh air to hear from our missionaries about the good things that are happening. Could you use some good news? Please come join our mission team. We meet at the church on the 2nd Monday of every month at 10 am. We would love to have YOU join us. We would also like to thank the Men's Prayer Breakfast for contributing $150 to our Missionary Christmas Jar. We fell a little short on our giving this year in this area so, please consider giving to our Missionary Christmas Jar monthly if you are able. We send the checks out the first part of November. That would help us so much, thank you.

Operation Christmas Child - We will soon be putting our collection box out for items that go into our shoe boxes. If you are a shopper, now is a good time to pick up stuffed animals at discounted prices from Christmas and very soon after Valentine's Day. And if you are not a shopper, we can always use monetary donations, just give to the church and designate it for "OCC". We try to put a small stuffed animal in almost every box. Other shoe boxes may get a soccer ball with an inflation pump, a diecast car, or a doll. We also put an essential pack in every shoe box which consists of crayons, paper, 4 pencils, pencil sharpeners, erasers, a toothbrush, a comb, [and a hairbrush for the girls]. We also like to include a coloring book, games, small toys, soap, washcloths, drinking cups, colored pencils, tools for the boys, calculators plus other items.

FILL THEM WITH

Garage Sale - At this time we are planning to host a large church-wide garage sale. We plan to do the same thing at this garage sale as we did in the summer of 2021. We will be designating all the money to "OCC" to help cover the cost of items for the shoeboxes and pay for postage. We invite you to donate items to the sale. We have been told the average home has 30% of items they will never use. Would you consider donating them to a church-wide garage sale to help pay for useful items that a child in need could use? The sale will be held at the home of Tom and Sandy Braid. Please talk with Sandy about donating items. A date has not yet been set. We will be attempting to set a date soon that does not conflict with other church activities. Please be thinking about items you can donate, we would appreciate it very much, thank you.

REMEMBER when you give to missions you may never know, this side of heaven, the impact your giving has across this world and our community. Our missionaries are impacting people all around the world and you are having a part in winning souls for Christ. Keep up the good work Bancroft Congregational Church. We are reaching others for Christ in many places we do not even know about.
